

SCHOOL of FINE ARTS

at WEST U METHODIST

Brian Davis

Piano Instructor

Brian Davis holds a Bachelor of Music Education in Piano and Conducting from Baylor University, a Master of Music in Piano Performance from Stephen F Austin University, and was a semi-finalist in the 2009 Bösendorfer Vienna International Piano Competition. Brian has performed in National and International festivals, including multiple performances at the Beverly Hills International Piano and Chambers Music Festival and in Arcidosso, Italy at the InterHarmony Music Festival. In addition, he has appeared multiple times in concert in Houston, Texas on the West University Methodist Concert Series.

Brian is known as a well-rounded musician, skilled in his rigorous classical performances as well as popular styles and improvisation. In his studio, Brian seeks to teach his students the music theory and performance practice that allows them to play from the printed page and potentially make up their own songs. Brian also serves as Contemporary Worship Leader in our 11AM Contemporary Worship Service each Sunday, leading the band in singing, playing piano, keyboard, and guitar as well as composing praise songs.